

QUESTIONS START AT 6:25

De la ciudad al pueblo. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AUGFOd7PZjY> You will watch an 8-minute excerpt from an episode of a program on the Mexican public TV channel, Canal 11. The program, called Los 11 más, polls viewers online to find the 11 best places to visit in each of Mexico's 32 states. This episode is about the Mexican state of Querétaro. From the city of Querétaro to the town of Amealco and the countryside, you'll see various sites to visit.

Before viewing, carefully read the statements below. As you watch, circle the most appropriate response, true (T) or false (F), according to the information given in the video.

1. You can try typical Mexican enchiladas in a restaurant called "La Mariposa".	T	F
2. The city of Querétaro has bars with something for just about everyone.	T	F
3. After a short break, the program returns and reviews the places in 11 th to 8 th place.	T	F
4. The places reviewed include a historic cemetery and a water park.	T	F
5. Amealco was founded in 1538.	T	F
6. Local indigenous people help maintain the town's identity.	T	F
7. The building that houses the municipal government is from the 17 th century.	T	F
8. On weekends, burritos are a favorite treat here.	T	F
9. Grape varieties include the Mexican, Spanish, and the French.	T	F
10. Tequisquiapan's beauty is due, in part, to its indigenous legacy.	T	F
Bonus question: Amealco and Tequisquiapan are Nahuatl (Aztec) words that both indicate what substance: _____		