

Auditivo: Los venezolanos que eligieron Chile. You will watch a 10-minute segment from a Chilean news report about Venezuelans who have emigrated to Chile. Before viewing, carefully read the statements below and underline key words. As you watch, circle the most appropriate response, true (T) or false (F), according to the information given in the video. (You may start the video after the first minute, around 1:20.) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VoJg9afrtC8>

1. Venezuelan emigration to Chile has increased most dramatically in the last five years.	T	F
2. “Hayaca” is a dish traditionally eaten by Venezuelans on Independence Day.	T	F
3. When Jelitza emigrated to Chile, the political climate in Venezuela had begun to change and become more polarized.	T	F
4. Jelitza has had to leave her children behind in Venezuela.	T	F
5. Most of the Venezuelan emigrants to Chile have come with work visas.	T	F
6. Jelitza explains that Venezuelans are more demonstrative than Chileans.	T	F
7. Marleny’s first impression of Chile was how similar the weather was to Venezuela.	T	F
8. Before opening her salon, Marleny worked as an electrical engineer.	T	F
9. Eder Sandoval, a lawyer from Venezuela, has struggled with both his employment and health since emigrating to Chile.	T	F
10. Only the youngest of Eder’s three children was born in Chile.	T	F
Pregunta extra: How does Jelitza characterize the Venezuelan people? (Answer in English.)		